- QCBR Homeshow booth is still seeking volunteers; the theme for this year is Hawaiian. Contact Holly at QCBR for VIP tickets.
- MEC wants to thank all for notes in inspections database, it really helps.
- Membership fees are due Feb 28th, 2016
- Fire Marshall's Association is open for training opportunities for their members; they have access to a sprinkler trailer demonstration for jurisdictions to present.
- Bob Buck – Discussed bonding of CSST gas pipe, Ray Nees said bonding requirements are per IRC or manufacturer's directions.

- Ron Hoover retired from ICC in December 2015; State of IA term expired. Congratulations.
- Bob Buck / Ron Hoover – discussed state of Iowa IECC adoption; will adopt 2015 IECC with amendments by first quarter of 2017.
- State of Iowa – Ron Hoover – removed plumbing, mechanical, electrical, sections from Residential building code and they refer to the state boards because that is already an approved code used for licensing purposes.
- Tim Schultz – ICC – May is building safety month, prepare your jurisdictions with proclamations and participate in a nationwide promotion.
- Jim Chapman began discussions on the importance of contractor testing.
- Tom Ayers emphasized the importance of attending final action hearings in Kansas City; would like for ILLOWA to be really well represented and to be unified as a chapter.

Move to adjourn by Jim Chapman; second by Tom Lupinski; meeting adjourned at 13:07 hours.

Respectfully submitted:

Joe Kuhlenbeck- Secretary
